

i like the no call list. i like that there are restrictions on how businesses can use our personal information. if i'm interested in a car loan, i can call my bank and ask about it. providing information to me about something i have to pay for is advertising. please uphold our no call list. thank you.